

Karen Willis

Karen Willis is a Colorado native and a resident of Nederland for over 40 years. Her love of being outdoors and photographing all the beauty nature has to offer is a passion that continues to grow. The joy felt when capturing something beautiful and making it a lasting memory is her way of balancing her demanding life. She especially enjoys photographing the wild horses in Colorado and neighboring states accompanied by her husband, Ray. In addition, she enjoys photographing her family and capturing those special moments that give her tremendous joy.

Karen continues to take local courses to improve her skills and display her work at the local art shows. She can be reached in Nederland, CO at 303-258-7522.
