

Nancy Sullo

Nancy Sullo has been painting in watercolor for 20 years. She has been in numerous juried shows, received several awards, and is a signature member of the Colorado Watercolor Society. Nancy teaches a variety of beginner through advanced watercolor classes.

"I respond to impressions of the world around me through my figurative and landscape watercolor painting. Capturing a moment in time, I strive to transform an ordinary scene into something striking and often almost magical. Lighting, color, and atmosphere are the elements I manipulate to achieve this effect."
